KNOWS IT ALL.

Sometimes the press of other lands affects more knowledge of Hawaiian affairs than the home papers display. It is within the privileges of the Hawaiian press, therefore, to return the compliment and tell the people of other countries what they may not know about their own affairs. What could be more refreshing in that line than the following opening sentence of a leader in the Advertiser: "It is absolutely certain that Mr. Cleveland will not become a third term candidate for the Presidency of the United States, although he will keep a hand upon the lever that controls the next convention." That is a positive assertion to make—"absolutely certain." Proverbially there is only one thing in human existence that is certain, its own earthly end. Politics are generally regarded as more uncertain than life, and to say that anything connected therewith is "absolutely certain" before the event is rather strong language. In one sense, however, but not the one intended, the Advertiser is right. It is "absolutely certain" that reference is made to the next presidential election. Now, should Mr. Cleveland be nominated as the Democratic candidate, it would not be for a third time in the sense that Grant sought renomination the last time. After Cleveland's first term he retired to private citizenship for four years. He was elected for the term succeeding that four years, and it is the opinion of good authority in the States that his candidature in the approaching campaign would be only, technically, for a second term, which is all it is consecutively. There is strong Democratic authority for the idea that Cleveland is the only logical candidate his party can put up. His policy it is that has given the party a definiteness of aim, object and reason for existence, in more than one line of action, which before his incumbency it had conspicuously lacked. None so well as he, it is almost "absolutely certain," can carry out those lines of policy to full fruition. It is unnecessary here to discuss the details of this proposition. Our contemporary assumes that Mr. Cleveland is opposed to the annexation of these islands absolutely. Where is he on record for the proof of that assumption? There is some respectable opinion current, here and in the United States, that had Mr. Cleveland succeeded in his Hawaiian policy of restoration of the old form of government, he would have invited negotiations with the people of these islands, through their own government, to come in out of the wet. Possibly if these things had happened, Hawaii would today be a star in the galaxy of Old Glory.

It has fallen to the Board of Health to decline the offered services of several ladies who declined to devote their lives to gentle ministrations to the lepers of Molokai. One reason is that there is really no need for these ladies' assistance in caring for the unfortunate. The ground has long been occupied by the Sisters of Mercy from New York, and now Christian Brothers from France are coming out to look after the boy lepers and make themselves otherwise beneficial at the settlement. Another reason is doubtless the unfortunate experience with that well-meaning young lady, Sister Rose Gertrude, who, after being a storm centre for some time, committed matrimony with the physician employed as a specialist at the receiving station, after he had resigned his place on account of what he deemed wrong treatment of the lady.

OBSERVATIONS.

Our King street contemporary tries to be smart by turning our scripture quotation for the benefit of the Government against ourselves. As the last number of the North American Review has answered it with regard to a recent criticism it made on a reference to Mr. Plimsoll in this paper, we hope to have Professor Smith of Chicago to come to our assistance in the present emergency. He is no slouch in that line, and don't you forget it.

This paper opposed the having of a labor commission, paid or unpaid. The institution from the first went clear away from the object of its author, Mr. Eumeluth, which was to investigate the extent of the influence of Japanese immigration upon trade and industry. The paid commission spent a big lot of money in gathering fragmentary statistics on the matter of plantation labor, whereon the labor committee of the Planters' Labor & Supply Company had already in print an exhaustive report.

An uncompromising campaign is being conducted by the San Francisco authorities against adulterated milk. There is no use in having a government unless it protects the public in all matters where individuals have not the necessary skill to detect fraud upon themselves. Counterfeit butter or milk is just as bad as counterfeit money. The subject has a right to be protected against imposition.

Among the Chinese in voluntary exile in San Francisco there is an organization of dissidents to the reigning dynasty at home. If it is true that certain persons who went from here lately did so under engagement to serve intending revolutionists in China, then there must be some kind of Chinese seditious organization in these islands also.

At last meeting of the British Medical Association eminent specialists of Germany and France bore testimony to the value of antitoxine serum both for the cure and the prevention of diphtheria. Professor Van Ranke, of the University of Munich, said the mortality had been reduced in nine months to considerably more than one-half, compared with the best years, and to two-thirds, compared with the worst years. For protecting persons exposed to infection the treatment was almost universally effective, but the protective period only lasts about thirty days. Honolulu has never had an epidemic of this terrible disease, but it would be folly to count upon perpetual immunity. If it should unfortunately come, the testimony of the European faculty regarding the potency of the anti-toxine treatment will be remembered.

Minister Castle gave forth the opinion at Washington that the Japanese had designs upon Hawaii. The Japanese Minister said in reply that his country had nothing of the kind. They have the country now so far as credit and the first call on employment is concerned.

JUDICIARY NOTINGS.

Petition for Administration—Bankruptcy Case Dropped.

Carrie da Silva petitions that F. W. McChesney be appointed administrator of the estate of her late husband, Manuel da Silva; who died on the 10th day of December, 1894, leaving property valued at $750.

In the bankruptcy proceedings of Geo. Lycurgus vs. H. Congdon and G. D. Freeth, a discontinuance has been filed by Paul Neumann, attorney for plaintiffs. It is learned that a settlement has been made by the firm, which is known as the California Wine Company.

Judge Cooper this morning ordered the will of the late Julius Alexander Anthon admitted to probate on the documentary evidence from the court in Denmark, and letters to issue to George H. Robertson under $1000 bond. The will was summarised in this paper a few weeks ago. Hatch and Dickey for petitioner.

Henry Smith, commissioner for the Supreme Court of British Columbia, has completed taking depositions in the damages suits of Cranston and Muller against the Canadian-Australian Steamship Line, for $50,000 each, for taking them out of Hawaii against their wills at the instance of the Hawaiian Government.

Missionary Society Insolvent.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Congregational Home Missionary Society is in debt to banks $179,000. The treasury is empty, and inasmuch as only $100,000 of the indebtedness is secured by collateral the banks have refused further unsecured loans. The society is absolutely dependent for the time being upon the gifts of churches and individuals.

It is said by the London reporters that in the Thames during the great fire of two or three weeks ago ten thousand rats, having swum across from the blazing wharf and failed to land, perished by drowning.

Timely Topics

—ON—
LAMPS AND LAMP SHADES
AND SOME OTHER THINGS.

This is the time of the year when the evenings gradually increase in length, especially on Saturdays and Sundays. Why the evenings should be longer on those two days than on any other is something no fellow has ever found out, but it is so. Such being the case the question of lighting up the household during the long evenings that are coming is one that cannot be ignored by the head of any household.

The question of economy must also be considered. Coal oil is advancing in price, and we read by the late dispatches that the Pennsylvania oil fields won't last much more than twenty years to come; also that the great Standard Oil Company is already looking around for new oil fields to supply the threatened deficit. Kerosene oil will always be obtainable at the figure Mr. Rockefeller puts on it, but as a matter of future economy the Honolulu householder should purchase his lamps with a view to procuring the greatest possible amount of light with the smallest consumption of oil. This can only be done by buying good lamps and good burners and good chimneys. The Hawaiian Hardware Company has them all.

By the last Australia we received and are now unpacking the finest assortment of lamps ever brought to this city, comprising as it does an extensive variety of bedroom, kitchen, boudoir, hall, dining and drawing room and reading lamps. These we have in glass and metal. Our assortment of hanging lamps and chandeliers of all kinds is simply immense and must be seen to be appreciated. In piano lamps we have something especially new.

To cover all these lamps we have some beautiful shades of the latest designs in paper and glass. When we say they are beautiful we mean it in the fullest sense of the word, as you will acknowledge when you see them.

We have also a display of pretty little Onyx tables, which are all the rage among fashionable people.

Our supply of Alaska refrigerators has been replenished and we are now prepared to furnish them in sizes to suit any household.

When It Comes

To Disinfectants we still have plenty, our stock has not been exhausted, and new arrivals are on hand.

DRY GOODS

In Honolulu there is always something that demands the attention of the fair sex. More especially is this true when good bargains are offered. In catering to the wants of the Honolulu ladies, the merchants must buy judiciously and select only the most artistic designs. Especially is this true of white dress goods. I received by the AUSTRALIA a new line of these goods that are very pretty. They must be seen, however, to be appreciated. I also received a fine line of Ladies' Shirt Waists and Corsets. Now that the Cholera is over and life, socially, has resumed its normal condition, the dry goods business must increase materially in the next month. Anticipating this demand I have laid in this fine stock of goods and they are now ready for your inspection, and can be purchased at a reasonable figure.
